TuanChe Provides Update on Business Impact from COVID-19 Epidemic

BEIJING, Feb. 26, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- TuanChe Limited (“TuanChe” or the “Company”) (NASDAQ: TC), a leading omni-channel automotive marketplace in China, today announced that it anticipates both financial and operating results for March 2020 and the first quarter as a whole, to be materially and adversely impacted by the COVID-19 epidemic in China (the “Epidemic”).

The Company previously announced on January 30, that it would be suspending all offline sales events in February. This decision was made in accordance with all relevant national and local regulations on Epidemic prevention and control, designed to ensure the health and safety of customers and employees.

In light of the continuously developing status of the Epidemic and the vital prioritization of containment efforts, the Company is further suspending all auto shows and special promotional events previously scheduled in March, with the possibility of further reductions in offline sales events currently scheduled in the second quarter of 2020.

The Company continues to closely monitor both the Epidemic and subsequent mandated regulatory actions and restrictions by government authorities. Additionally, the Company is proactively taking the necessary steps to further optimize its cost structure and conserve resources, as well as accelerating the development of its virtual dealership and online marketing services.
